Starting October 4 -January 17, UPS and FedEx are adjusting their Peak Surcharges on large packages during the holiday season. Large Packages are defined as packages with length (longest side of the package) plus girth $[(2 \times \text{width}) + (2 \times \text{height})]$ combined exceeds 130 inches, OR with a length exceeding 96 inches. This surcharge will increase any oversize package and an estimated \$20 between each carrier. Please follow the links below for more clarification.
